

Bible in a Year #35c- Joel, Responding to God

Wednesday, Dec 6, 2017

Pastor Derrick M. Hammond

BIBLE IN A YEAR- Joel, Responding to God

Responding to God

Three Types of Believers

Those who are Ignorant. Proverbs 22:3 “The prudent sees danger and hides himself, but the simple go on and suffer for it.” Acts 17:30-31 “The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed; and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.”

Those who choose to Ignore. Hosea 4:6 “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.”

Those who choose to Intercede. 2 Chron. 7:14 “If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.”

Three Steps to Take

One: Preserve your witness. (Acts 1:8)

Guard your words: "Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice" (Ephesians 4:31). We are to "show perfect courtesy toward all people" (Titus 3:2), especially our leaders (Romans 13:1; 1 Peter 2:17). Christians are to speak the truth, but in love (Ephesians 4:15).

Two: Fulfill your call. (Isa. 6; Phil 3:14)

I am convinced that God is calling more Christians into public service than are answering his call. New York Times columnist David Brooks suggests four questions we should ask about our calling: (1) Is this problem big enough? (2) Am I uniquely positioned to serve? (3) Has God or nature thrust this problem into my path? (4) Does it keep me awake at night? How does God want you to engage in public service, to his glory and our good?

Three: Keep the faith. (1 Cor. 16:13; Eph. 6:10)

Whoever becomes president, God is still King. He is not subject to our politics. He declares: "At the set time that I appoint, I will judge with equity. When the earth totters, and all its inhabitants, it is I who keep steady its pillars" (Psalm 75:2-3). Job was right in confessing to our Lord, "No purpose of yours can be thwarted" (Job 42:2).

Bible in a Year #35c- Joel, Responding to God

Wednesday, Dec 6, 2017

Pastor Derrick M. Hammond

BIBLE IN A YEAR- Joel, Responding to God

Responding to God

Three Types of Believers

Those who _____. Proverbs 22:3 “The prudent sees danger and hides himself, but the simple go on and suffer for it.” Acts 17:30-31 “The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed; and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.”

Those who choose to _____. Hosea 4:6 “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.”

Those who choose to _____. 2 Chron. 7:14 “If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.”

Three Steps to Take

One: _____. (Acts 1:8)

Guard your words: "Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice" (Ephesians 4:31). We are to "show perfect courtesy toward all people" (Titus 3:2), especially our leaders (Romans 13:1; 1 Peter 2:17). Christians are to speak the truth, but in love (Ephesians 4:15).

Two: _____. (Isa. 6; Phil 3:14)

I am convinced that God is calling more Christians into public service than are answering his call. New York Times columnist David Brooks suggests four questions we should ask about our calling: (1) Is this problem big enough? (2) Am I uniquely positioned to serve? (3) Has God or nature thrust this problem into my path? (4) Does it keep me awake at night? How does God want you to engage in public service, to his glory and our good?

Three: _____. (1 Cor. 16:13; Eph. 6:10)

Whoever becomes president, God is still King. He is not subject to our politics. He declares: "At the set time that I appoint, I will judge with equity. When the earth totters, and all its inhabitants, it is I who keep steady its pillars" (Psalm 75:2-3). Job was right in confessing to our Lord, "No purpose of yours can be thwarted" (Job 42:2).